

Double Fore-Edge

Countess of Pomfret's
copy with monogram

Chester Quay
Wolvey, Warwickshire

Title of Book: Several Discourses Preached at the Temple Church. Vol I.

Author: Tho. Sherlock D. D.

Publisher: London: Printed for J. Whiston and B. White at Boyle's Head, W. Owen at Homer's Head, Both in Fleet Street, and E. Baker at Tunbridge.

Publication Date: 1756

Edition: The Fourth Edition.

Dimensions: 8 3/8" long X 5 1/4" wide X 1 1/8" high

Condition: Time toning and foxing to pages, pen and pencil by later hand throughout, minor tears to some pages, corners bumped, and shelf wear. Prior book plate adhered to interior of cover.

Purchased as a 2 book set

Provenance:

a) Belonged to the Countess of Pomfret, Henrietta Louisa Fermor.

b) 2016 Aspire Auctions.

Description: Two Double Fore-Edged Books "Sherlock's Sermons", Having Belonged to the Countess of Pomfret, Henrietta Louisa Fermor.

Sherlock D. D., Tho. "Several Discourses Preached at the Temple Church." Vol. I, Fourth Edition. Printed for J. Whiston and B. White at Boyle's Head, W. Owen at Homer's Head, Both in Fleet Street, and E. Baker at Tunbridge, London, 1756.

Depicting Chester Quay and Wolvey Warwickshire. Vol. IV, 1758, depicting Conway Castle, Wales, and Pembroke Castle, Wales. Tooled, gilt, and stenciled binding, raised spine, with impressed monogram of the Countess of Pomfret Henrietta Louisa Fermor (1698-1761) to front and back cover as well as the spine. Each with its own individual slipcase.

Fore-edge Painting: Chester Quay and Wolvey Warwickshire.